

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH OF ENGLAND PRIMARY SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER

24th March 2017

Channel 4 News

You may have seen St. Paul's School on Channel 4 news on Tuesday, in a piece about funding cuts. Ash Class were amazing ambassadors for St. Paul's, and featured in the clip. If you would like to see this and missed it, you can find it on All 4, and if you type in "headteachers", the clip comes up. We have also put the clip on the school website.

Blue Elephant Theatre

Years 3 and 4 performed yesterday for parents at the Blue Elephant Theatre, acting out plays about making bad choices. The audience then had to decide where they had made bad choices and then they replayed it, showing better choices. It was a very impressive performance from all the children.

Basketball Tournament

We took two basketball teams to the tournament this week, and neither won this week, but they are both faring well in their leagues. They continue to show great sportsmanlike behaviour.

Easter Eggstravaganza

Don't forget that next Wednesday is the Easter Eggstravaganza from 4.30 – 6pm. We hope to see lots of you there!

Palm Sunday Service

Next Tuesday we have the Palm Sunday service at St. Paul's Church. It is a bit early, but the way the holidays fall has made it hard for us to celebrate the usual key points of Lent and Easter, so we have decided to focus on Palm Sunday this year. All are welcome at 9.15 at St. Paul's Church.

BBC Filming

I wrote to parents yesterday in Larch and Elm Class about the BBC coming in to film next Thursday. The production company have now sent me permission slips for all parents in these classes to sign. Please sign and return before next Thursday.

End of Term – 2pm finish

Next Friday is the end of term. We will finish at 2pm next Friday. We return to school on Tuesday 18th April.
